Description

Beautiful character 4 bedroom property with sea views from all levels on a south facing plot with private pool, air conditioning and roof terrace that is walking distance to the town and the sea.

On the ground floor there is a vast 'L' Shaped Naya which leads to the lawned garden and private pool area. Upon Entering the property you can immediately appreciate the love, care and workmanship that has gone into the restoration of this charming building. There is a large lounge bedecked with Tosca arches and fireplace, this leads to one of two smaller lounge areas that can be used as a study and or another lounge area. The modern kitchen with Corian work surface features a dining area which then leads to an enchanting exterior area where the wisteria and Jasmine covered pergola offer shade for those hot summer days.

On the first floor there is a third living area which entertains the master suite with dressing room plus a further two guest bedrooms and guest bathroom.

On the second floor there is another double bedroom with a vast roof terrace with stunning views across Javea to the sea, here there is good potential to develop if so required.

This unique property has to be seen to be truly appreciated, it is the perfect holiday or permanent home for a couple or family who recognize the properties history and want to be walking distance to both the town and the sea.
